

Lion Tracks—Resources for the newest Lion Den

A Scout who is 6-years old or is in the kindergarten is a Lion, and their adventures are found in the Lion Handbook.

The Lion program is designed to be rotated amongst families so that everyone has a chance to run a den meeting.

Lion Den Meeting Themes

Meetings can happen in any order through the year. However, all five "Required" adventures should be completed prior to April 1st, 2021 (or prior to the Blue & Gold Banquet). There are other elective adventures which can be completed as well.

Required Adventures—Complete all Six in whatever order you would like.

Meeting #1: Lion's Honor: Learn the basics of Cub Scouting such as motto, sign, and salute. Get to know other members of your Den.

Meeting #2: Animal Kingdom: Learn a flag ceremony; about emergencies; and about someone who serves the community.

Meeting #3: Fun on the Run! Learn about different exercises and how to make a nutritious snack

Meeting #4: King of the Jungle: Practice a flag ceremony; learn what it means to be a good citizen

Meeting #5: Mountain Lion; talk about what is needed for an outdoor adventure and go on a learning hike

Elective Adventures
